Olga hard at work at school and snacking at home.

Adair high school has two foreign exchange students this year, Olga Perez and Rocio Heredia. Both of them like our country but have had to adjust to some of our ways. On the things they didn't like, Olga said the food, while Rocio said she has not found anything she doesn't like.

CHRISTMAS

It's beginning to feel like Christmas when certain things begin to happen

- The stone-faced elevator operator says "good feeling" for the first time this month
- The newspaper boys puts the paper on the porch and not on the roof
- The office "coffee break" doesn't last through the morning
- The taxi driver opens the cab door for a lady passenger
- Your son says, "I don't need the car tonight, Dad"
- The wife brings you morning coffee in bed
- The bus driver doesn't slam the door in your face.
- The store clerk says, "Thank you for shopping with us."
- You receive a call from a long-lost friend.
- You feel like greeting the world with a smile and a friendly greeting
- And, isn't it a very nice time of year?

- 1) Adair's parking lot with everyone getting his or her dream car
- 2) Chorus presents carols during the annual Christmas program.
- 3) Enjoying the program
- 4) The band waits for their turn in the program.
- 5) No classroom is complete without the presents under the tree
- 6) Know what I want for Christmas?

REMEMBERING THE PAST

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

we had more than thirty in our class?

there were fights behind the propane tanks?

Melissa Crawford was one of the guys?

we kissed behind the band building?

the "Class of 86" waved proudly from the radio tower?

it didn't matter what you looked like?

the girls were taller and could outrun the boys?

playing football at noon was more important than lunch?

Shelly Holt hated guys?

Gary and Greg streaked through the gym?

the Bluebirds went to Uncle Zeb's?

the Adair softball team did not go to state?

Joey could stay awake a whole class period?
